

Workflow Consultation Giveaway

The winner of the contest will be entitled to one (1) free 30-minute meeting hosted via Skype for Business and must be held within two (2) weeks of the contest close and at a mutually-agreed upon time convenient for everyone involved. The topics discussed will only relate to SharePoint workflow.

Contest closes at 5pm Central Time on May 10th, 2017. All required fields must be filled out accurately on the online form and I reserve the right to reject any entries that are deemed to have inaccurate information. No changes to your systems will be made by Daniel Glenn during the session and any modifications to systems by the contest winner or affiliates should be done in a test environment and not on the same system, site, site collection, or SharePoint farm as production data. No changes to a production system or service should be made based on the consultation without careful consideration.

Neither Daniel Glenn nor his employer will not be held liable for any issues caused by winner's actions.

Consultation should not include sensitive or private information. A non-disclosure agreement (NDA) will NOT be executed as part of the consultation. However, if further discussions are had as part of services provided outside of this contest, an NDA can be signed. Any advice given during the consultation will be mutual property and therefore any information can be used by Daniel Glenn and/or his employer for marketing purposes, EXCEPT for winner's name, winner's contact information, and winner's company name.

All information submitted via the contest form (entries) will become property of Daniel Glenn and may be used via sales channels to contact individuals who submitted a contest entry. A method of opt-ing out of communications will be provided at the first contact.
